

- Singapore Post is only carrying out introducing activities for HSBC Life Singapore;
- Singapore Post is not permitted to give advice or provide recommendations on any investment products, market any collective investment scheme or arrange any contract of insurance in respect of life policies, other than to the extent of carrying out introducing activities;
- Singapore Post is not allowed to receive or deal with your money or property when carrying out introducing activities for HSBC Life Singapore;
- Singapore Post will be/will not be receiving remuneration or introducing fee from HSBC Life Singapore and the amount shall be disclosed upon your request;
- Where the Singapore Post carries out introducing activities for more than one introducee, the Singapore Post (whether through any of its representatives or otherwise) shall, with the consent of the client, introduce that client to every introducee that provides the type or types of financial advisory service required by that client;